Headline:

Cloudy start with some rain and fog. Brighter by afternoon.

Today:

Cloudy and misty start with some fog and rain affecting most parts. This lifting and clearing to give bright or sunny spells by midday. Afternoon showers developing inland, perhaps heavy with a risk of thunder later. Warm with light winds. Maximum temperature 23 deg C (73 deg F).

Tonight:

Any remaining evening showers soon dying out then some clear spells before turning misty with fog affecting much of the region by the end of the night. Light winds. Minimum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Monday:

Mist and fog quickly clearing from inland areas then Monday should be fine with sunshine developing. Feeling very warm and humid by afternoon. Maximum temperature 25 deg C (77 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:

Tuesday fine again with some sunshine. Wednesday and Thursday cloudier with patchy rain and showers likely, perhaps heavy. Feeling humid.
